

Kori Bustard

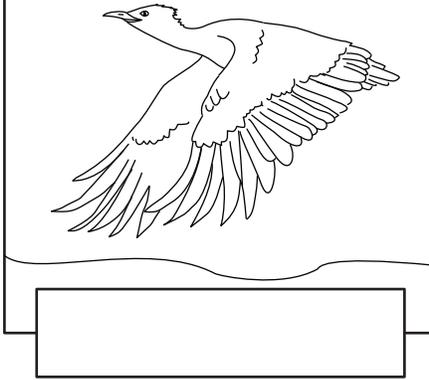

Ardeotis kori

FACT or FICTION?

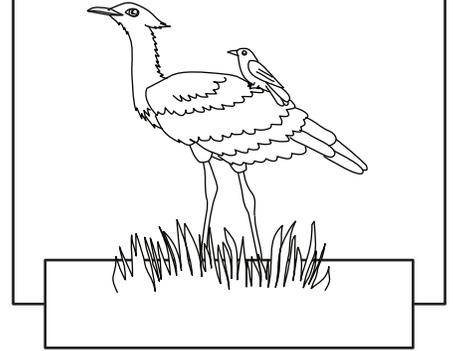

Kori bustards live by the ocean

The kori bustard is the world's heaviest flying bird

Bee-eaters often sit on kori bustards to eat insects off their backs as they walk

CHARACTERISTICS:

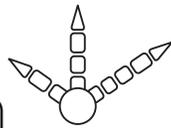

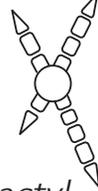

Diet

- Avivore
- Carnivore
- Herbivore
- Insectivore
- Piscivore
- Omnivore

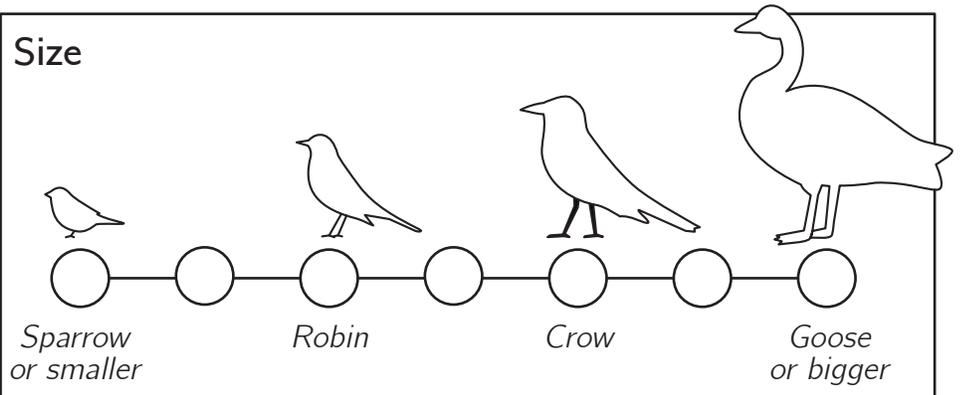

Nest

- Burrow
- Cavity
- Nest
- Mound
- Scrape
- Other

Feet

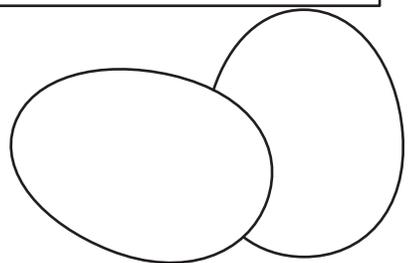

-  Tridactyl
-  Zygodactyl
-  Didactyl

Size

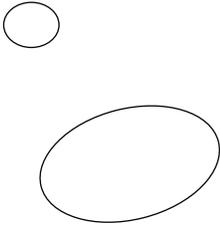

Beak

- Conical like a sparrow
- Hooked like a hawk
- Lamellate like a duck
- Long and narrow

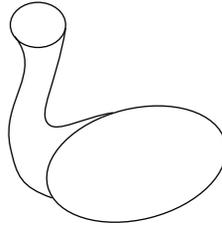

How to draw a Kori Bustard

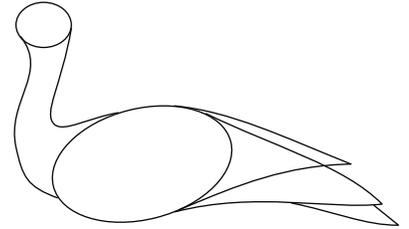

1.

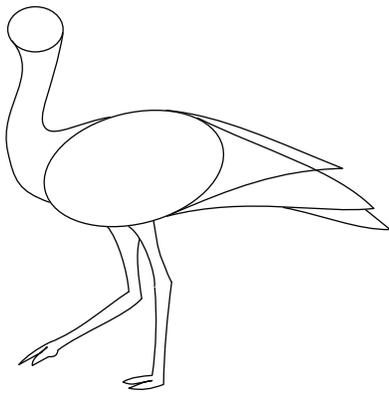

2.

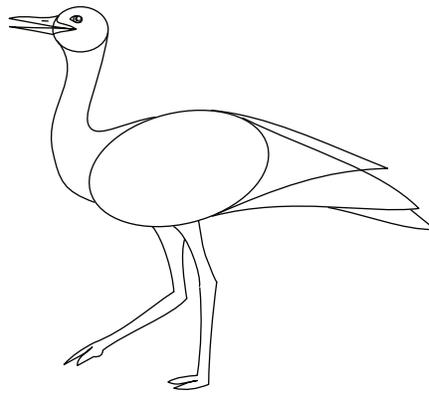

3.

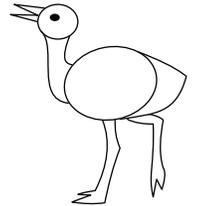

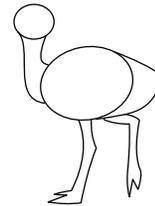

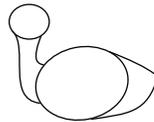

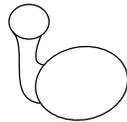

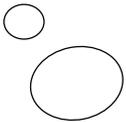

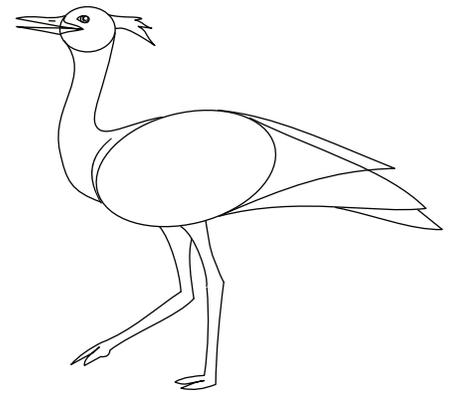

4.

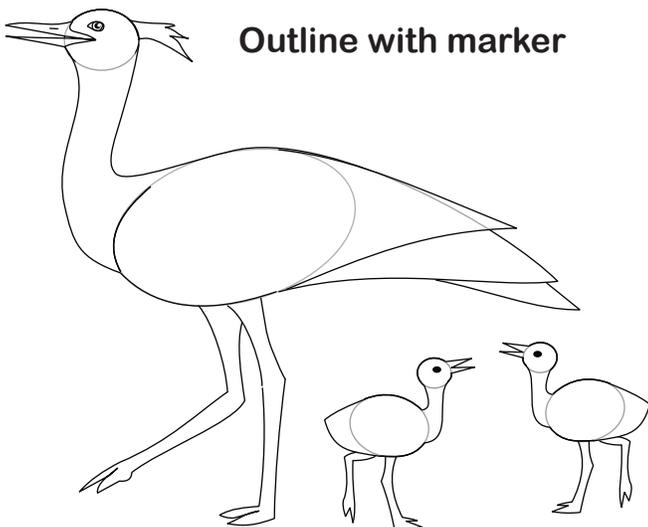

5.

6.

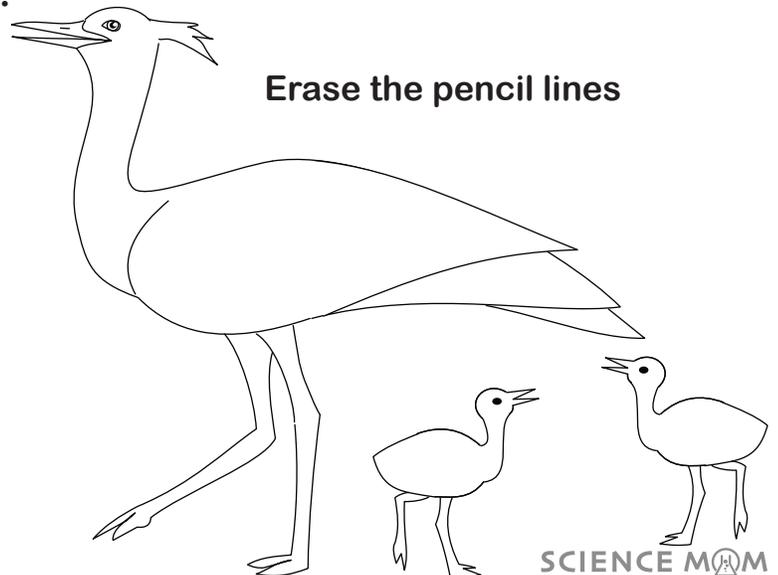

7.

Outline with marker

8.

Erase the pencil lines